

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

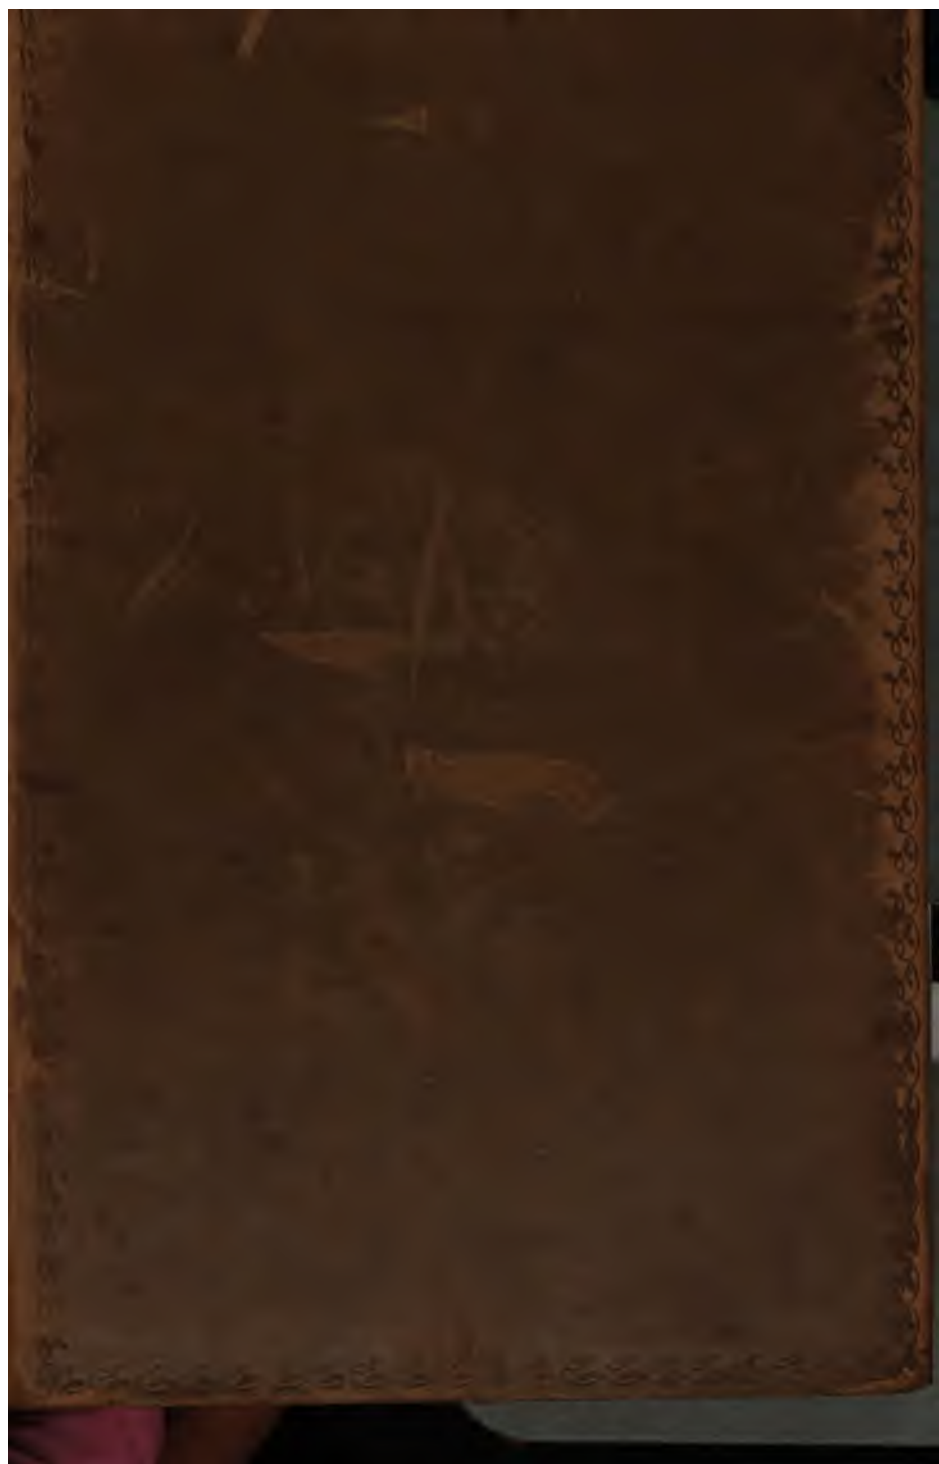

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. DEDICATION

TO

HER ROYAL HIGHNESS

VICTORIA-MARY-LOUISA, DUCHESS OF KENT.

MADAM,

In most respectfully dedicating this work to your Royal Highness, we entreat you to accept our humble and sincere thanks for the gracious Patronage which your Royal Highness has vouchsafed to it.

That your Royal Highness may long live in the enjoyment of health and happiness, and of that high estimation which the exemplary virtues of the female character never fail to secure from the British Public, is, Madam, the ardent Prayer of

Your Royal Highness's

Most grateful and devoted Servants,

ANNE, ELIZA, AND MARIA INNES,

PROPRIETORS OF "THE ANNUAL PEERAGE."

P R E F A C E.

A MATERIAL alteration, and, it is hoped, improvement, now first takes place in the arrangement and character of this work. It will be found to contain the usual and ever increasing intelligence which has been for some successive years laid before the public, with the title of "THE ANNUAL PEERAGE," under which it has received those testimonies of approbation to which the authenticity of its materials, derived, with few exceptions, from individual members of the Noble Families whose present state it has professed to declare, and the conscientious fidelity with which the results of such information have been sedulously arranged and recorded, have encouraged the compilers to presume that they actually possess some degree of claim.

It is now proposed, to speak somewhat paradoxically, one, and the same operation, to enlarge and to compress that work, and, by dividing the two classes of intelligence of which it has hitherto consisted, the more effectually and usefully to unite them. In other words, to lessen the space occupied by the pedigrees of living members of Noble Families, by divesting them of all early genealogical details, and by adding, separately but collectively, such brief notices of the origin and ancient history of each, as may serve to render them at once easy of reciprocal reference, and mutually illustrative of each other.

To accomplish these ends, the present work will now be classed in two volumes, the one comprising the living subjects of the well-known "ANNUAL PEEBAGE," including their Collateral Branches, (a feature peculiar to that work,) and the other exhibiting concise historical sketches of their Ancestry and Families, together with Plates of their Armorial ensigns.

The obvious advantage of this mode of publication, will be found in the option which it will afford to purchasers. Each volume may be considered either as a whole, or as a moiety, for each will be in its peculiar character and import perfect; and he who is once possessed of that which, for the sake of distinction in reference, it has been thought fit to denominate "The Genealogical Volume," the contents of which, as matters of history, are necessarily permanent, may always, at a reduced, and comparatively very small charge, efficiently retain the entire work, by the addition of that which will be found referred to by the title of "The Peerage," and which the course of events will unavoidably require to be occasionally replaced by a revised copy.

Of a work which has no aim but at mere utility, and affects to employ no means to attain it beyond correctness in the statement, and perspicuity and conciseness in the arrangement, of facts, it is perhaps needless to go into further explanation. Nor would it be necessary to observe, that the design has been founded on that of the "ANNUAL PEERAGE," already more than once alluded to, since almost every page of one of these volumes exhibits internal evidence to that effect, did it not afford me the opportunity of offering my acknowledgments to the ladies by whom that work has been for some years so meritoriously conducted, for the active co-operation with which they have aided the accomplishment of the present enlarged plan, cheerfully relinquishing all the credit so justly due to their endeavours, except that of being yet allowed the high honour of dedicating it to their illustrious and incomparable patroness.

By Act for the Union of Ireland, 30 and 40 George III. chap. 67, it is enacted, "The Lords to Parliament, on the part of Ireland, shall have the same privileges as the Lords on the part of Great Britain; and all the Lords Spiritual of Ireland shall have rank next after the Lords Spiritual of the same rank in Great Britain, and shall enjoy the same privileges, (except those depending upon sitting in the House of Lords,) and the Temporal Peers of Ireland shall have rank next after the Peers of the like rank in Great Britain at the time of the Union; and all Peerages of Ireland and of the United Kingdom, created after the Union, shall have rank according to creation, and all Peerages of Great Britain and Ireland shall in all other respects be considered as Peerages of the United Kingdom, and the Peers of Ireland shall enjoy the same privileges, except those depending upon sitting in the House of Lords."

On the extinction of three Irish Peerages, the King has the power to create one new Irish Peerage, which is to rank among the English Peers, according to their dates.

OF

THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

THE KING AND ROYAL FAMILY.

THE KING.

WILLIAM [HENRY] THE FOURTH, of THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, KING, Defender of the Faith; King of Hanover.

His Majesty was born 3rd son of King George the third, 21 Aug. 1765; after a naval education, and having passed through the inferior ranks, he was appointed a Post Captain in 1786. On the 20th of May 1789, His Royal Highness was created Duke of Clarence and St. Andrews and Earl of Munster; in 1790 he received the commission of Rear Admiral, by subsequent promotion became Admiral of the Red, and in 1811 succeeded Sir Peter Parker as Admiral of the Fleet. Under Mr. Canning's administration His Royal Highness accepted the office of Lord High Admiral, which had been in abeyance a hundred years, but resigned it in 1828, during that of the Duke of Wellington. His Majesty ascended the Throne of these Realms on the death of his Brother, King George the Fourth, 26 June 1830, having previously married at Kew Palace, 11 July 1818, Her Serene Highness Princess ADELAIDE-LOUISA-THERESA-CAROLINE-AMELIA, eldest daughter of George-Frederick-Charles, late reigning Duke of Saxe-Meiningen, b. 13 Aug. 1792.

Their Majesties were crowned together at Westminster Abbey, 8 Sept. 1831. They have had issue,

1 Princess Charlotte-Augusta-Louisa, b. and d. 27 March 1819.

2 Princess Elizabeth-Georgina-Adelaide, b. 10 Dec. 1820, d. 4 March 1821.

THE KING AND ROYAL FAMILY.

The late most illustrious Monarch KING GEORGE THE THIRD, Father of his present Majesty, was b. 4 June 1738, succeeded to the Throne, on the death of his grandfather, King George the Second, 25 Oct. 1760, and d. 29 Jan. 1820, after the longest reign recorded in the annals of the British monarchy; his Majesty m. 8 Sept. 1761, Her Serene Highness Princess Charlotte-Sophia, 2nd daughter of Charles-Louis-Frederick, reigning Duke of Mecklenburgh Strelitz, b. 19 May 1744, d. 17 Nov. 1818. Their Majesties' issue were,

- 1 KING GEORGE THE FOURTH, b. 12 Aug. 1762, succeeded 29 Jan. 1820; d. 26 June 1830; having m. 8 April 1795, Her Serene Highness Princess Caroline-Amelia-Elizabeth, 2nd daughter of Charles-William-Ferdinand, late reigning Duke of Brunswick-Wolfenbüttel, [by Princess Augusta, eldest daughter of Frederick, Prince of Wales, and sister of King George 3rd,] by whom, who was b. 17 May 1768, and d. 7 Aug. 1821, he had issue,

Charlotte-Augusta, Princess of Wales, b. 7 Jan. 1796, high-minded, beautiful, and beloved, she died in childbed, to the inexpressible grief of the nation, 6 Nov. 1817; having m. 2 May 1816, Prince Leopold-George-Frederick, 3rd son of Francis-Frederick-Anthony, late reigning Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Saalfield, K.G., G.C.B., Field Marshal in the Army, b. 16 Dec. 1790. Elected King of the Belgians, and inaugurated at Brussels 21 July 1831. They had issue :

AN ALPHABETICAL INDEX

TO THE

DAUGHTERS OF DUKES, MARQUISES, AND EARLS,

WHO, HAVING MARRIED COMMONERS, RETAIN THE TITLE OF LADY BEFORE THEIR OWN CHRISTIAN AND THEIR HUSBANDS' SURNAMES.

The initial of the Lady's Christian name is given. Ladies who have married into the Peerage are not inserted, as they will be found under the families bearing their husband's surname. The figures refer to the page in which the marriage will be found.
